

No Deal!

Why are we rejecting the deal and continuing the strike?

The offer still means savage cuts to our pensions

What this could mean for you:

Salary	Current pension expectation per year	Pension under proposed 'deal' per year	Pension cut per year	Your extra contribution per month
£20000	£12809	£11,529	-£1280	£11.67
£30000	£14820	£12807	-£2013	£17.50
£45000	£15018	£12232	-£2786	£26.25

Figures based on the modeller at www.uss-pension-model.com depends on circumstances and years in the scheme.

The deal would increase employee contributions by 0.7% whilst reducing benefits from 1/75th per year to 1/85th per year. The 1% match on additional contributions put in place in 2016 would also be removed. Above earnings of £42,000 pension income would rely on stock market performance (previously £55,000).

The proposed deal is only a temporary arrangement for 3 years, our pension arrangements were only changed two years ago.

We do not want to have to go through this again in 3 years' time!

The deficit is based on false assumptions
